Still Saving Yourself? Gimmepleez.com and Social Saving.

Gimmepleez.com is a unique social networking site; actually they prefer to call it a Social Saving site. It was created as an easy way for people and organizations to save for the things they want, the things they need, and the things they dream about. Targeting the 18-30 age range demographic, we knew we needed to create a strong visual image and a huge viral buzz for the program to succeed. \(MORE\)

Gimmepleez.com trading cards

We worked to create a look for Gimmepleez that was unique, dynamic, hip, techy, simple, professional and modern.

“In May 2009 we launched Gimmepleez.com with many great partners including Ten26 Design. Tony was fantastic to work with, not only did he develop a great looking website but he created an overall vision for our new brand! For that reason we have continued to work with Tony and will in the future.

We recently completed a number of projects with Ten26 including mailers, flyers, and trading cards, all of which have gotten great feedback at the consumer level and are a consistent piece of our overall branded look. I am very proud of what we have built and would recommend Tony and Ten26 Design to anyone.”

Paradise in Design Avalon Salon & Day Spa Menu design

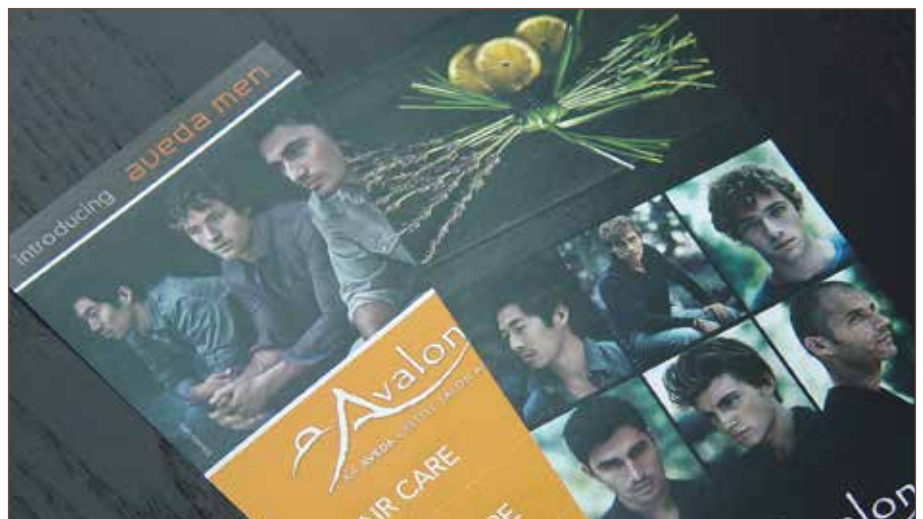

Avalon Salon is one of the premier salons in the Chicagoland area, so when they approached us to work on their service menu, we jumped at the chance.

Avalon prides themselves on creating a comfortable and relaxing experience for their guests. We knew the design of the menu had to match this feel. We created a light, airy, natural design featuring all of their services in an easy to follow manner.

“Ten26 Design created a fresh look to our dated menu of services. They listened to our objectives and quickly created a piece that was less cluttered, easy to read, edgy and environmentally conscience.

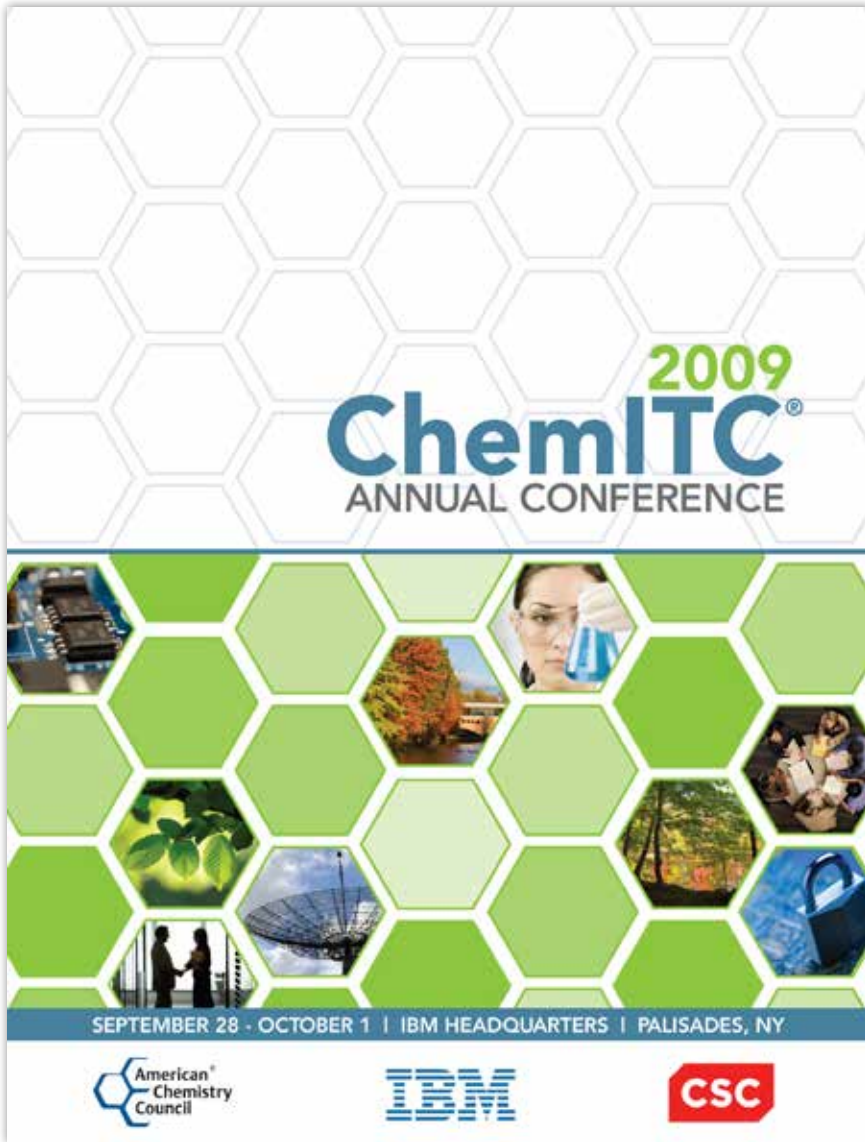

All of our goals were met, and I am proud to present potential Avalon Salon customers with our beautiful new service menu!”

ChemITC Annual Conference Gibbs & Soell

“There is a wealth of amazing creative talent in the Chicagoland area and Ten26 Design is among the best. I am so pleased with my decision to work with them. Rather than do a simple update on a design template that had grown stale, I turned to Ten26 for some new ideas and received a clean, professional, visually-appealing yet easy-to-use conference brochure with coordinating email banner and event signage that impressed.

Perhaps even more important was the dedication that they demonstrated throughout the process. Their work was always top-quality, their response was timely and when pushed up against a deadline, they went above and beyond to deliver a quality product. I look forward to future opportunities to work with Tony and Ten26 Design.”
